

National Organization of Trade Unions (NOTU)

The National Organization of Trade Unions (NOTU) is Uganda's largest workers' federation, representing millions of workers across various sectors. NOTU advocates for improved labour standards, fair wages, workplace safety, and social protection for all workers.

Mission

To champion workers' rights, strengthen trade unionism, and promote decent work for all.

Core Services

NOTU provides labour rights advocacy, legal support to affiliates, training and capacity building, youth empowerment, gender inclusion initiatives, and guidance on labour standards and legislation.

Leadership

NOTU's leadership includes the Chairman General, Deputy Chairman General, Secretary General, Treasurer General, Youth Representative, and other council members who steer the federation's programs.

Key Focus Areas

- Defending workers' rights
- Promoting social justice
- Strengthening union governance
- Enhancing workplace safety
- Advocating for fair labour laws